Course: Mastering the Art of Communication to Enhance Team Collaboration and Customer Satisfaction

Course Code: TGS-2023037467

Alignment: K5, A3

Version: v10.1 | 17 August 2026

Detailed role-play playbook

Preparation - 10 minutes

1. Read the scenario and your confidential role card.
2. Mark facts, assumptions, emotions, interests, and non-negotiable constraints.
3. Define the shared purpose and the communication outcome you want.
4. Choose the first phrase you will use and the evidence you will listen for.

Round 1 - baseline

1. Prepare one factual Situation-Behaviour-Impact example.
2. Open with purpose and invite the leader's view.
3. Use GROW to define the desired meeting behaviour and current reality.
4. Generate options and rehearse a concise briefing with a check-back.
5. Agree a way-forward experiment and observable measure.
6. Conduct a seven-day follow-up conversation.

Observer coaching - 7 minutes

- Record exact language and observable behaviour, not personality judgements.
- Identify one strength, one meaning gap, and one alternative phrase.
- Check clarity, listening, tone, channel, ownership, and follow-up.

Round 2 - deliberate practice

1. Repeat the decision moment with the coached alternative.
2. Confirm shared meaning, action, owner, timing, and escalation.
3. End only when every role can state the same decision in their own words.

Debrief

1. What evidence is specific enough to be fair?
2. Which question creates ownership rather than compliance?
3. How will the leader practise and receive feedback?
4. What measure shows transfer to the workplace?
